V. CONDUCT OF MEETINGS OF THE COUNCIL CONVENED PURSUANT TO STANDING ORDER I.

V.1. Order:

- i. The person presiding at the meeting may exercise all the powers and duties of the Chair of the Council in relation to the conduct of the meeting.
- ii. Members are required to maintain order and to obtain the permission of the Chair to speak.
- iii. The Chair on the advice of the Clerk to the Council shall determine the appropriateness of any debate or part of a debate in respect of the consideration of the business or part of the business as set out in the agenda for the meeting and this determination shall be binding on the members of the Council
- iv. A period of time for general debate shall be allowed at the commencement of consideration of all business as set out in the agenda for a meeting during which time no proposal on that business may be made and the length of time for such debate shall be determined at the discretion of the Chair subject to a Resolution carried by a majority of the members present at the meeting that the period of general debate be either continued or concluded.
- v. The chair shall at his or her discretion bring to a close the consideration of any business or any part of business as set out in the agenda for a meeting subject to a Resolution carried by a majority of members present at the meeting that the business shall continue to be discussed at the present meeting.
- vi. Should any matter arise relating to the personal interests of any individual it shall not be considered until the Council has first decided whether the public and press shall be excluded
- vii. A member who has declared an interest in any business set out in the agenda shall leave the Council Chamber for the duration of the debate on that business unless invited to remain by the Chair and in this event the member shall not participate in any part of that business other than to provide a specified point of information at the request of the Chair.

- viii. In the event of disorderly conduct at the meeting, howsoever arising, the Chair has the absolute right to suspend business until order is resumed or to close the meeting if order cannot be resumed.
- ix. Smoking of any sort shall not be permitted at any meeting of the Council.

V.2. Motions and Resolutions:

- i. A motion to suspend Standing Order I.1.iii. shall not be moved without a Resolution by as many members as constitute a quorum.
- ii. A Resolution of the Council shall not be reversed within six months of its being made other than by a special Resolution proposed in writing and signed by the proposer and seconded by as many members as constitute a quorum.
- iii. A motion to alter the order of business as set out in the agenda for a meeting may be moved at any time during that meeting by a Resolution carried by a majority of the members present at the meeting.
- iv. A motion to defer for consideration at a later meeting of the Council any business as set out in the agenda may be moved at any time during that meeting by the Chair.
- v. The Chair may, at his or her discretion, require any motion to be reduced to writing.
- vi. The point in time that a member may make a proposal in respect of any business or part of business as set out in the agenda for the meeting is subject to Standing Order V.1.iv.
- vii. A proposal or an amendment to a proposal requires a seconder and in the event of there being no seconder, the proposal will not be recorded in the Minutes unless the proposer request that this be done.
- viii. No more than one amendment to a proposal may be made and this may be made at any time before the vote on the substantive proposal is taken and the amendment shall be voted on first.
- ix. In respect of an amendment to a proposal the Chair has the discretion to determine that the amendment is not a valid amendment to the substantive proposal and shall not be voted on subject to a Resolution carried by a majority of the members present at the meeting that is a valid amendment and that the vote shall be taken.
- x. At any time during the proposal proceedings or the voting proceedings the Chair on the advice of the Clerk to the Council has the absolute discretion to determine that there has arisen a misunderstanding as to the substance of the proposal or an amendment to it sufficient to invalidate that proposal or the amendment to it and in this event the following shall apply:

- a) The Chair shall first determine whether the members present at the meeting require a second period of general debate pursuant to Standing Order V.1.iv and the resolution of this shall be by show of hands and carried by a majority of the members present.
 - b) Where such second period of general debate is required the proposal and the amendment to it if there is one shall both be invalid irrespective of which gave rise to the misunderstanding and a new proposal shall be allowed pursuant to Standing Order V.1.iv.
 - c) Where such period of general debate is not required, the Chair shall require the proposer for either or both the proposal and the amendment to it, as required, to clarify the terms that are to be voted on and shall resolve by show of hands carried by the majority of the members present that the vote may be taken;
 - d) Where, following the procedure of either b) or c) above there is a continuing misunderstanding as to the substance of a proposal or an amendment to it, the Chair shall require the proposal and the amendment to it if there is one to be reduced to writing and shall have the absolute discretion on the advice of the Clerk to the Council to defer the vote to the next meeting of the Council convened pursuant to Standing Order I.1.
- xi. Voting shall be by show of hands counted by the Clerk to the Council and will be taken as a 'for' vote, an 'against' vote and 'abstentions', and the record of votes in the Minutes will be the number of votes pertaining to each save that any member is entitled to require that their name be recorded so as to show how they voted.
 - xii. In the case of equality of voting the Chair shall give a second or casting vote except in the case of election of officer which shall be pursuant to Standing Order VI.
 - xiii. Those eligible to vote are the elected members of the Council except for any member who has declared an interest.
 - xiv. The Chair may defer the consideration and voting for any proposal and its amendments to a later meeting of the Council subject to a Resolutions carried by a majority of members that the voting shall take place at the present meeting.

V.3. Public Participation:

- i. The agenda for a meeting pursuant to Standing Order I.1.i. shall have the item Public Participation as part of the business set out in that agenda.
- ii. The Clerk to the Council in consultation with the Chair of the Council is permitted to add the item Public Participation to a meeting pursuant to Standing Orders I.1.ii., or I.2i. or I.2.ii where an issue of concern to the parishioners of the Parishes of Codsall, Oaken and Codsall Wood causes it to be appropriate to do so.

- iii. Public Participation shall be a maximum of fifteen minutes unless a Resolution to extend this period by a specified amount of time is carried by a majority of the members of the council present at the meeting.
- iv. For the period of Public Participation, including any extension of the period, the Council shall not pass any Resolution and matters arising shall be deferred for proper consideration at another time.
- v. A parishioner of the Parishes of Codsall, Oaken and Codsall Wood may, with the permission of the Chair of the Council, address the Council on any matter of Council business and a member of the Council may, with the permission of the Chair, reply to or add further information on the matter.
- vi. A member of the public who is not a parishioner of the Parishes of Codsall, Oaken and Codsall Wood may be permitted to address the Council with the permission of the majority of the members of the Council present.
- vii. The Chair of the Council on the advice of the Clerk to the Council shall determine whether a matter raised by any member of the public is a matter of concern to the Council and for the resolution of any doubt in this respect shall abide by the majority view of the members of the Council present.
- viii. If no persons attend for the commencement of Public Participation, the Chair of the Council shall continue with the business as set out on the agenda for the meeting and if after so doing a parishioner arrives before the expiry of fifteen minutes, the Chair shall provide a reasonable period of time not exceeding ten minutes before moving to further business on the agenda.

V.4. Participation of the public other than during Public Participation
