

Events in the South Staffordshire area in September/October 2017

J.R.R. Tolkien Trail – Cannock Chase A 12 mile walk in the footsteps of J.R.R. Tolkien across the Chase	Friday 1 September Meet at Brocton Coppice Car Park at 9:30am (Departing at 10:00am) Tel Penkridge Library via 0300 111 8000 to book a place (Booking essential)	£2.00 per person (Includes a visit to the Great War Hut at Marquis Drive) Approx. 6 hours including breaks
Traditional Frame Basket Course Forest of Mercia CIC are teaching the traditional craft of basketry with these great 4 week courses	Codsall Library: Running on Thursday afternoons 1.00pm—3.30pm from 14th September until 5th October Tel 0300 111 8000 to book Perton Library: Running on Monday afternoons 1.00pm—3.30pm from 11th September until 2nd October Tel 0300 111 8000 to book	£15 per person (includes all materials)  £15 per person (includes all materials)
‘War Bride’ is coming to Perton 	Saturday 16 September Perton Library Public Performances at 11:30am and 3:10pm. Workshop 12:30pm – 2:30pm Tel 0300 111 8000 to book onto workshop	Free to watch. Free opportunity for 11-22 year olds to participate in creative workshop and 3:10pm performance

History & Heritage Open Day - a great day for the family!

History re-enactors,
National Trust
Moseley Old Hall &
Kinver Edge,
exhibitions, family
history advice, 'The Shakespeare Man',
RAF Museum,
Cosford, Staffs
County Museum,
Museum of Cannock
Chase, author Tom
Bryson,
Wombourne History
Group,
Wolverhampton
Archaeology Group,
Cannock Chase
AONB, lots of activities for the kids!

Family History
Course with Birmingham &
Midland Society for Genealogy and Heraldry

Family History
Course with Birmingham &
Midland Society for Genealogy and Heraldry

Family History
Course with Birmingham &
Midland Society for Genealogy and Heraldry

Saturday 16
September
Perton Library
11:00am – 4:00pm
Tel 0300 111 8000 for more information

Monday 18 September
Codsall Library
10:15am – 12:15pm
(and each Monday
after for 4 weeks)
Tel 0300 111 8000 to
book

Wednesday 20
September
Wombourne Library
11:00am – 1:00pm
(and each Wednesday
after for 4 weeks)
Tel 0300 111 8000 to
book

Thursday 21
September
Perton Library
2:30pm – 4:30pm (and
each Thursday after for 4 weeks)
Tel 0300 111 8000

Free

Free (Booking Essential as places are limited)

Free (Booking Essential as places are limited)

Free (Booking Essential as places are limited)

English Civil War Surgery – A fascinating talk from National Trust volunteer Pat Bickford

The First 600 years of Perton – A fascinating talk from Ann Sadler

To The End of the Earth – Scott & the Antarctic
A fantastic new presentation from Andrew Lound about Captain Scott's ill-fated trip to the South Pole in 1911 – 1912

J.R.R. Tolkien Trail – Great Haywood
A 10 mile walk in the footsteps of Tolkien to the village of Great Haywood

Tuesday 10 October
Penkridge Library
7:00pm – 8:00pm
Tel 0300 111 8000 to book

Tuesday 17 October
Perton Library
7:00pm – 8:00pm (With Q&A afterwards)
Tel 0300 111 8000 to book

Thursday 26 October
Perton Library
7:15pm—9:00pm (With intermission)
Tel 0300 111 8000 to book

Sunday 15 October
Meet at Brocton Coppice Car Park at 9:30am
(Departing at 10:00am)
Tel Penkridge Library via 0300 111 8000 to book a place (Booking essential)

£3.00 (£2.50 Library members) Booking Essential

£2.00 (Booking Essential)

£4.00 (£3.50 Library members) Booking Essential

£2.00 per person (Includes a tour of the village with local historian David Robbie)
Approx. 5 hours

